THE TEMPLE TIMES

Rabbi Sidlofsky's Reflections

Though we are not celebrating any annual Jewish holidays in February, we are, as always, observing Groundhog Day in this country, as well as in Canada. If like me, you are fans of the movie of this name starring Bill Murray, you may have felt that these past two years have, in some ways, been like reliving the same day over and over again. It has been challenging to be limited in what we can do, and to have to take many extra precautions in our daily lives. Most difficult was not being able to gather as a community.

I am pleased to say that at Temple Isaiah, we are now able to have many options for being together, in a safe, responsible way. While we have continued having many offerings over the past two years, we are looking to expand our activities again and also to do so in person:

☆ Our school has been holding in person classes since September and has had a great year so far, with much more to come. We will be planning fun Purim activities, in conjunction with our wonderful

Social Action Committee and Parent's Association (with hamantaschen, of course!), after a very successful Chanukkah program and assembly.

☆ Our services now have the option of both in person attendance (with plenty of room for all who want to come), as well as live stream viewing. Special occasions such as our recent Board Installation have been made even more meaningful by taking place in our sanctuary.

☆ B'nai Mitzvah are held once again in the sanctuary for all who choose, while holding a Zoom ceremony is still an option. We just held a 2023 B'nai Mitzvah orientation meeting and will soon be assigning dates for 2024 B'nai Mitzvah.

☆ I also look forward to our 6:00 family services, the first Shabbat evening of each month.

☆ We have had both indoor and outdoor special Shabbat day programs, including a wonderful walking tour of historic Setauket, followed by a picnic lunch; and an equally enjoyable round robin exploration of the Temple's history and facility.

☆ We are currently gearing up for the expansion of our Adult Ed. program.

☆ Our beautiful Rabbi Adam Fisher library is fully open and is visited regularly by our students, with the guidance of Carole-Ann Gordon, who also leads a monthly adult book club in the library. Congregants can visit the library 30 minutes before each Shabbat service.

☆ And we are currently exploring a return to in-person congregational Purim celebrations and a Passover seder.

The past two years has taught us that community is more than a building. But it has also reminded us of the value we place on being together with those we care about. At Temple Isaiah, we are an extended family and therefore enjoy each other's company and mutual support. I hope you will continue to look for ways to connect with us and let us know what you'd like to see and experience. And I look forward to being together in person on a more regular basis in the near future. We will continue to follow safety protocols, but will also explore ways to gather and connect to one another. We are very much open for business!

L'shalom,

Rabbi Paul Sidlofsky

A Message From Our President

HOWARD KANOWITZ

Each of us has reasons for joining a temple. I joined Temple Isaiah in 1996 because it was important to me that my children, Jessie and Max, receive a Jewish education. Back in 2003 Jessie became a Bat Mitzvah with Rabbi Fisher, and in 2006 Max became a Bar Mitzvah with Rabbi Karol. The years have gone by quickly, and now I have been given the precious gift of two grandchildren, 3-year-old Henry and Sadie, who just turned one. I was a younger dad back when I joined Temple Isaiah, and now all these years later, I am a grandpa who has become President of our beautiful Temple! How did that happen?

Before becoming president, many of you knew me because for many years I was a busy general contractor, and I worked both inside and outside your homes. It is now my pleasure to use my skills in helping to assess and make recommendations for the upkeep of our building. (Actually, I'm pretty hands on in that department!) In some cases I got to know you through my mom, Betty Kanowitz, of blessed memory, because she was the quintessential Hadassah volunteer. In more recent times I joined the Shir Joy musicians and played the the violin at Shabbat services. I look forward to the continuation of these joyful services in our sanctuary!

I think it's safe to say that if you do know me, you know that I am diligent and seek perfection in whatever I do. Having said that, I also try my best to please others. For the next two years I will work hard on behalf of our Temple. If we work together we will achieve many goals that will make us all feel proud and happy! I look forward to getting to know each and every one of you. In the meantime, please feel free to contact me at howiemckan@aol.com or call or text me at (631) 804-3200.

L'shalom,
Howie Kanowitz

Sustaining Members & Friends of Temple Isaiah 2022

Please help us to maintain Temple Isaiah as a house of worship, a house of learning, and a house of assembly by becoming a Sustaining Member in 2022.

It is here where you celebrate life-cycle events, and it is here where you will find consolation and encouragement when you need it. It is only with your financial support that Temple Isaiah will be able to continue to provide education, worship services, and compassionate support for people who are experiencing loss, crisis, or illness. Won't you please perform the mitzvah of tzedakah at Temple

Isaiah? If you are able to make a contribution as a Sustaining Member, you will be providing revenue for regular as well as unforeseen expenses, and you will be helping us plan for future generations.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

It is always the right time to do a good deed!

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

It was especially important to perform mitzvot during the pandemic! Although we could not gather, Temple Isaiah congregants made their way to Temple and dropped off many bags of food that were donated to the Harry Chapin Long Island Cares Organization in time for Thanksgiving. The following month our members purchased a number of beautiful toys that were donated to the Lend A Hand organization, so they could be given to children in time for Hanukkah and Christmas. In January many winter coats were collected and brought to the JCC in Commack for distribution to families in need.

Purim is now right around the corner, (March 16-17th) and the holiday is always celebrated with the mitzvot of giving misloach manot and matanot la-evyonim.

During the time of revelry and fun our congregation remembers the lives of those who need our help. This will be yet another time to “do a good deed!”

We welcome your ideas for actions as well as advocacy. Please call or send an e-mail: irisschiff18@gmail.com (631) 928-0971

COMMUNITY BUILDING COMMITTEE (MEMBERSHIP)

Community Building Committee, previously known as Membership, enthusiastically met for the first time in January. We are eagerly working on programs and events that will address: recruitment, orientation, engagement/integration and retention of members. We will also be pursuing various publicity venues to get the word out to the community about our Temple's programs and events. There is always room for you to pull up a chair and join us at the Community Building table! Looking to hear from you at yescag18@gmail.com.

GETTING TOGETHER WITH THE BOOK GROUP

Our Book Group happily continues to meet in our Library with all CDC precautions in place, including fresh air intake. Please come join us on Monday, February 28th at 1:00 PM to partake in a facilitated discussion of Steve Ross's memoir From Broken Glass.

We invite you to join us and extend a warm welcome to our newest member, Terri Cohen.

Want to read ahead for March? The selection is The Vixen by Francine Prose.

We can only do this work if we hear from the congregation. If you have good news to share (a birth, wedding, etc.), please let us know. If you or a family member are facing a serious illness or challenge, or you have experienced the loss of a loved one, please tell us. If you are feeling isolated and would just like an occasional phone call, we'll be there if you reach out. All you need to do is email us at ticaringcommittee@gmail.com, call Sue Rosenzweig at 516-429-0620, or call the temple office at 631-751-8518. Our committee will always work to respect your privacy.
